

Functional English – Adult Curriculum

Reading - Identify road and social signs, greeting cards and adverts. Know purpose and use recipes, instructions, magazines and leaflets. Read and explain instruction booklet, health and safety notice.

Writing - Compose and write a caption, shopping list, a list of equipment needed, text message, a note, diary entry, instructions.

Functional Maths – Adult Curriculum

Number in context - count, order and use simple calculations to find totals including a calculator

Money - recognise and select coins and notes, make totals and use money to pay for items

Time - Relate familiar events to: times of the day; days of the week; seasons of the year; know own date of birth and record in common date formats

Measure - estimate and describe size, length, weight, capacity of common everyday objects

Shape - understand and use positional language

Data Handling - systematic record of observations

Life skills

People and places around the school and in the local community - different roles; taking messages

Jobs in and outside of school; jobs in the community; considering own options for the future

Transition Challenge

Recording of weather over a period of time

Finding your way around the school

Finding out about different jobs

Using kitchen measures

Exploring materials where they change texture through mixing, drying or cooking

Choosing something to buy and using money to buy it

Personal, Social and Emotional

Development:

PSHE - understanding and dealing with own emotions and expression of self

Citizenship - voicing likes/dislikes through a democratic process; making choices and being independent; global citizenship - effects of climate change - flooding, droughts, extreme weathers

RE - school and class assemblies, Christian and moral values, Harvest, Christmas celebrations

Friendship Groups - small groups meet with the Learning Mentor focusing on interpersonal skills

Woodpecker Class

What's the weather?

Physical Development:

Therapies:

Physiotherapy - on Fridays with Physiotherapy specialist followed by sessions in class 3 x weekly

Hydrotherapy - for individual pupils at Point 4

RDA - Ludlow for individual pupils as needed

Sensory activities:

Massage, Tac Pac, Rebound therapy, Passive movement, Sensory integration

PE

Sports skills at Bridge Street Sports Centre, including football, targets. archery

Theme Related Learning – Weather

Weather words and symbols

Observation and recording of weather

Conversations about the weather

Selecting appropriate clothes for the weather including varied temperatures

Weather forecasting - role play

Drama

Listening and responding and using role play to practise real life situations.

Music

Music is taught discretely as a stand-alone subject using Charanga website focusing on an African theme to explore pulse, rhythm and pitch.

MFL

French - greetings, colours, numbers, names for clothes; weather words. Recognise, use and match words in a foreign language.

Science

Solids, gases and liquids - changing materials; measuring temperatures and collecting data.

Art

Basic art skills to develop fine motor skills and key art techniques and art specific language.

Cooking skills

Hygiene in the kitchen, key culinary skills promoting independence and love of eating healthy foods.

ICT

Using mobile technology - using a mobile phone, entering numbers, texting, receiving and making calls taking responsibility for safe use.

Using a camera - taking photos, saving and editing pictures; printing and creating a photo collage.