

Pavilion Café

A group of sixth form students run the Pavilion café every Friday morning.

They are learning customer service skills in a real environment.

Students take orders from paying members of the public.

They are learning how to greet customers politely, serve them safely and hygienically.

Students learn the process from start to finish, getting themselves ready, taking orders, serving, clearing away and taking the payment.

