

Food from animals

Robin class visited Richard Bright's Butchers in Leominster. It was so interesting to see where the meats that we eat come from and how the butchers prepare and sell them. We especially enjoyed cooking and tasting the different meats we bought.

