Food from Plants

Robin class visited Parry's traditional fruit and vegetable shop, in Leominster, to explore all the different fruits and vegetables that are available to buy and eat. It was great learning about the different fruits and vegetables and even better tasting them.